

PEN South Africa newsletter / Issue 11.

View this email in your browser

Issue 11
13 November 2015
ISSN 2410-2210

Books are to education what oxygen is to life. Without books there is no learning, no knowledge, no understanding, no empathy. A book is a wonder – it is the distillation of what we know and how we live together. It is outrageous to think that just because a child is poor they should be cut off from books – the lifeblood of our shared community.

A book – and this includes the textbooks which are for so many millions of South African children the only books they will possess – is companion, guide and freedom. A book – a textbook – gives a child the autonomy they need to study and read at their own pace. This is not a luxury. Books and the hands that hold them give the shape of our shared futures. To deprive children of books – to which they have a right – is tantamount to depriving those same children of food.

With this in mind PEN South Africa supports SECTION27 and Better Education for All (BEFA)'s #TextbooksMatter Campaign. SECTION27 is a public interest law centre that seeks to influence, develop and use the law to protect, promote and advance human rights. BEFA is a community based organisation made up of parents, school governing bodies, learners, educators and other community members in Limpopo. ...read more

Writers add your name to this call by clicking here and filling in the form.

Reflections on the PEN International 81st Congress

The 81st PEN International Congress was held in Quebec City, Canada from October 13 – 16. PEN SA Vice-President Raymond Louw and his wife Jean, as well as PEN SA Centre Co-ordinator Lindsay Callaghan, attended.

Read Bheki Makhubu's Carlos Cardoso Memorial Lecture

Bheki Makhubu, columnist and Editor-in-Chief of The Nation in Swaziland was in South Africa this week to give the Carlos Cardoso Memorial Lecture at Wits. In March 2014 Bheki was jailed on charges of contempt of court following the publication of articles criticising the

Raymond has written about the Resolutions put forward by the Centre that were approved at Congress...read more

Jean has reflected on her impression of the event...read more

Lindsay visited the PEN America Centre following Congress and has written about both experiences...read more

NEW MEMBERS' TITLES

PEN SA members with new books out include Zakes Mda, Imraan Coovadia, Joanne Hichens and Justice judicial system. He was released in July of this year.

Read the lecture that Bheki gave and listen to an interview he and PEN SA Vice-President Raymond Louw took part in on media freedom in Africa...read more

On the Twentieth Anniversary of the Execution of Ken Saro-Wiwa

Ken Saro-Wiwa was born in October 1941 in Bori, Nigeria. After graduating from the University of Ibadan he worked briefly as a teacher before his best

Malala...read more

CONGRATULATIONS!

Mark Winkler has been shortlisted for the 2015 Short Story Day Africa Prize...read more

Zukiswa Wanner, Charl-Pierre Naudé, Edwin Cameron, Michele Magwood and Achmat Dangor won South African Literat Awards...read more

PEN South Africa's Executive Vice-President Mandla Langa and members Zakes Mda and Imraan Coovadia have been nominated for the 2016 International Dublin Literary Award...read more

Sarah Lotz has been nominated for a 2015 Goodreads Choice Award and you can vote for her to get through to the next round until 15 November...read more

Masande Ntshanga and ZP Dala have been longlisted for the 2015 Etisalat known novel, Sozaboy: A Novel In Rotten English, an anti-war satire, was published in 1985 ...read more

Join us in Commemorating the Day of the Imprisoned Writer

Join master of ceremonies Finuala Dowling as she hosts an event that will include award-winning writers Sindiwe Magona, Claire Robertson and Jim Pascual Agustin. Famous freedom songs will be performed by prizewinning songwriter and vocalist Emma Rycroft together with Nielan Prinsloo of the band Blacksmith.

Prize for Literature...read more

CALLS FOR SUBMISSIONS

Sunday Times Literary Awards open for submissions from publishers...read more

The University of Johannesburg Prize for South African Writing in English...read more

Realness African Screenwriters Residency...read more

BK Publishers Looking for Children's Short Story Writers...read more

When: Monday 16 November at 6 for 6.30pm

Where: Kalk Bay Books, 124 Main Road, Kalk Bay, Cape Town

RSVP: 021 788 2266 or events@kalkbaybooks.co.za ...read more

UPCOMING EVENTS

Take a look at what's happening in November...read more

WELCOME

Professional members Simone Haysom and Tiah Beautement, as well as our first Supporter, Roland Langley.

Send us your news

Had a book published recently? Attended or participated in a festival? Won an award? Achieved a personal milestone of note? We welcome any news of your activities for future issues of the PEN SA newsletter.

Please email your contributions to communications@pensouthafrica.co.za

Facebook

Twitter

Website

Copyright © 2015 PEN South Africa, all rights reserved. All information regarding awards/competitions, residencies, festivals, etc., included in this newsletter is passed on to you as a service to PEN SA members. Any questions regarding entry rules, entry processes, festival programmes, etc., should be sent directly to the relevant organisers. PEN SA attempts to establish that the information received is genuine before passing this on to our members, but we cannot be held responsible should that not be the case.

unsubscribe from this list update subscription preferences

MailChimp